MISS DARLING BRIDE AT PRETTY WEDDING
Dorothy Dolores Darling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Darling, became the bride of Edward Raymond Price of Lomita at an impressive ceremony at the First Baptist church last Friday evening at 8 o'clock.
The church was beautifully decorated in fern, culla lilies and sweet peas, with white tulle marking the pews. Miss Katherine Wheaton sang, "Calm of the Night" accompanied by Miss Nyla Tapsey, who also played the wedding march.
The bride entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, on the arm of her father, who surrendered her to the groom at the rostrum.

Reverend Shepherd of Pomona, an old friend of the Price family, performed the ceremony before an arch beautifully decorated with lilies, sweet peas and fern.
The maid of honor, Miss Eileen Woodburn, was dressed in a gown of peach taffeta, and carried a bouquet of matching rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Lingelenter, and Miss Hortense Price, a sister of the groom. They wore taffeta gowns of period style, and carried sweet peas to match.
Richard Darling, brother of the bride, was best man, and Henry Hedrick and Donald Darling were ushers.

The bride was very lovely in a white chiffon gown, with tiers of silk lace on the skirt. She wore a long bridal veil of tulle, with a cap of real lace held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms.
She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.
After the ceremony the couple received the congratulations of their friends and left for a honeymoon at Catalina Island, where they spent a few days. The bride wore a going away ensemble of blue, with hat and accessories of a matching shade.

On their return they will make their home at the El Contento apartments on Sartori avenue.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Price are graduates of Torrance high school and have many friends here.
Mrs. Darling entertained the wedding party with a dinner at her home on Anapoda avenue prior to the wedding ceremony in order that the bride and groom might leave at once after the wedding.
